

National Knowledge Week for Hearing

Meeting complex challenges: Effective assessment, management and support for early-identified deaf children with complex needs

Wednesday 20th March 2013
10.00am – 4.00pm

Dexter House, Tower Hill, London, EC3N 4QN

<http://www.etcvenues.co.uk/venues/dexter-house/contact>

This one day event will be a combination of expert presentations and opportunities for discussion. Aimed at all practitioners involved throughout the care pathway from screening through to early intervention.

Full international faculty

Dr Paula Pittman Ski-Hi Institute, Utah State University and Programme Director Parent and Infant Programme at the Utah Schools for Deaf and Blind

Associate Professor Lisa Hunter Scientific Director of Research, Division of Audiology and Associate Professor, UC Department of Paediatrics, Cincinnati Children's Hospital, Ohio, US

Professor Melissa Wake Consultant Paediatrician and Associate Director of Research, Royal Children's Hospital, Melbourne, Australia

Professor Wendy McCracken Professor in the Education of the Deaf, University of Manchester

Dr Chryssoula Thodi Director of Children's Screening, Cyprus Audiology Centre

To register please visit:

www.venueandhotelservices.com

£25.00 - for those attending the NHSP Conference on 19th March 2013
£50.00 for those attending this day only

Refreshments and lunch will be provided